

Policy

Checklist

At AgQuest we feel strongly about the details of your policy, by answering a few simple questions you decrease the chance for error or misunderstanding before it becomes a costly mistake.

- Are there any new crops for this year?
- Will any acres be emerging from CRP this year?
- Will you be adding any new land to your farming operation this year?
- Are you raising food grade or low linolenic soybean? Contact us for coverage options.
- Is the “Named Insured” on the policy correct, matching how crops are sold?
- Is the state and county correct for all crops insured?
- Is the Tax Identification number correct for the insured entity?
- Has there been a change in marital status for the insured entity?
- Are all persons with a Substantial Beneficial Interest in the insured entity reflected on the policy? Any additions or deletions?
- Are the Social Security numbers and spelling of all names for insured, spouse, SBIs correct?
- Is all the contact information still correct? (i.e. address, phone numbers, etc.)
- Are there any crop share changes?
- Have you acquired, or do you anticipate acquiring, any farm acreage in another county?
